GAME PREVIEW : A Holy Cross affair, St. Edward hopes to rebound from loss top Moeller in the last game of the regular season with Archbishop Hoban, which has a handful of Ohio State pledges

By Norm Weber

LAKESWOOD – Another rival will return to First Federal Lakewood Stadium when Archbishop Hoban visits at 2 Saturday for the final football game of the regular season.

The Eagles and Knights are both rooted in the Holy Cross tradition in South Bend and therefore are a part of The Brotherhood.

St. Ed's (5-4) really has several rivals these days.

"A little bit, but it's more about respecting the Hoban tradition over the last 10 years," St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said. "Being two Holy Cross schools and having the same values is something special."

Hoban (7-2) is in Akron, so a large crowd is expected for these two schools in a football battle. "It's going to be another great game, no doubt about it," Coach said.

The Knights have a vaunted defense

"Defensively, we start with their linebacker Eli Lee, who made a commitment to Ohio State," Coach Lombardo said. "They also have Tanner Mintz. They start it off. They are physical and great tacklers. They have an outstanding secondary with Roc Hill IV, who is committed to Ohio State, and has had a couple explosive games the last couple weeks. They have Tylan Boykin, who is a free safety who played quarterback last year. "They are athletic. The defensive line attacks, the front gets off the blocks, they get off the ball and they get space."

The offensive line is just as strong.

"Offensively they complement that with a stout running game. Brayton Feister, the running back, is extremely strong and powerful. He runs behind an offensive line that has Sam Greer, an Ohio State pledge. They can put some of those defensive athletes on offense," Coach said.

They present the full package.

Well, if Boykin is playing safety now, the Knights must have a new quarterback.

They play two guys at quarterback, No. 19 and No. 5. Trent Hayden and Ethan Roksandich, respectively.

"They have two new guys in there for a reason," Coach Lombardo said. "One's a thrower and one is more of a runner. I don't know which one they like better, but we'll do what we have to do to stop them."

The strength of schedule plays in now that week 11 is creeping up on us.

More than half the teams on the schedule have two or fewer losses. Boyle is undefeated. Pick North, its only loss was to St. Ed's. Moeller has only one loss. St. Joe's Prep has a loss to St. Ed's and one other.

St. Joe's lost in triple overtime to the No. 1 team in Pennsylvania right now, LaSalle. Massillon has two losses. Hoban has two losses.

"That's our strength of schedule," Lombardo said. "People get caught up with our record. Of the four losses three of them could have gone either way. Massillon, Moeller, and Glenville. We just didn't win them, but we were in position to win them."

"Massillon we didn't convert a couple fourth and shorts. We did miss a field goal. Glenville the same thing. We shot ourselves in the foot with some errors. Errors and penalties cost us the game. The errors you can't do with the strength of schedule we have."
