GAME PREVIEW : Facing a new challenger in Region 1, St. Edward football takes on Findlay in the Round of 16 of the Big-School playoffs

By Norm Weber

LAKESWOOD -- Week 11 has arrived, which means the football playoffs begin with St. Edward (5-5) playing Findlay (4-6) at 7 p.m. Friday inside First Federal Lakewood Stadium in the Round of 16 in the Division I Region 1 game.

The Eagles are looking to defend their 3x state championship streak and the Trojans are shooting for stopping them before they go any further.

In the first game of the season, the Trojans lost their starting quarterback, Ryan Montgomery, a four-star player headed to the University of Georgia, to an injury.

"They are a new addition to our region," said St. Edward head coach Tom Lombardo. "They're a good solid football team. They're battling some injuries, too. They lost their quarterback, Montgomery. He tore his ACL in the first game. That hurts, and we understand what they are going through."

So both teams have an offensive skills player out for the season.

"That's football, but we're all 0-0," Coach Lombardo said. "We're on a line and we're now in a bracket. Every game is a championship game. You win, you advance."

The coaches have watched film on Findlay.

"They're well coached, they spread out, and they have some scrappy players on defense," Coach Lombardo said. "They have a good receiver. Their left tackle (Baylor Wilkin) is one of the best we've seen all year. He's committed to Indiana. It will be a good football game. We are glad that it is at Lakewood."

In this way, the home field advantage can be a factor since the Trojans are traveling two hours each way.

Montgomery has been replaced at quarterback by a freshman Riley Korkos, who is about 6-2 and 195.

"He's got some looks from some colleges," said coach Lombardo. "He's a good quarterback. He stands in the pocket well and throws a nice ball. He's a good player now as a freshman. He's going to be a really good player."

The defense of Findlay is solid as well.

"They have a good defensive line," Lombardo said. "They play that left tackle (Wilkin) on the D line sometimes. The linebackers are good, strong tacklers. They're big. They pose a challenge."

The offense spreads things out, much as Pickerington North did in week 1.

"They'll give more of a two-tight ends look with some of that and a 4-x-1 quarterback run game," the coach concluded.
