GAME PREVIEW : GAME PREVIEW:

Two key things will be needed to defeat

St. Ignatius football: stop the run, and establish the run

By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – St. Edward varsity football aims to snap a two-game losing streaks when it takes on St. Ignatius at 7 p.m. Friday in the Battle of the Saints on Tressel Field, inside the George Finnie Stadium. Last week's loss to Glenville was also inside Finnie and then it was a home game for St. Ed's. This time it is St. Ignatius' home game. This is not the first time the two teams met at Finnie. Stretching back to the 70s, they have met quite a few times there. Both the Eagles (3-3) and Wildcats (1-5) are looking to break through with a much-needed win.

"Their record is maybe 1-5, but they're not a 1-5 team," St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said. "They are improving steadily. They have a slew of running backs behind a good offensive line."

They have a new quarterback, who is more run oriented, frequently using the quarterback keeper.

"He poses some problems," Coach said. "And their defense is steadily improving. It's going to be a tight Ignatius-Ed's game."

The Eagles really need this one. For this they need to play sound football, and complementary football in all three areas.

"We're close," Coach said. "There are times we are playing really well. Then there are when we're not. We have to do a better job of stopping the run and a better job of establishing the run. That's the difference right now. If we can those two things, we can get in our rhythm offensively and control the ball and keep the defense off the field. We need to get some key stops on defense and start controlling the game more."

All three losses were to defending state champions and all three the Eagles had a chance of winning it. "We're 24-21 with Massillon and get stopped on fourth and short," Lombardo said. "We have 2-and-a-half yards to take the lead. Those are two good football teams, and we are playing well enough, but just not finishing well enough."

The mistakes are being worked on this week in practice.

"We're not making key plays and making too many mistakes," the coach continued. "These are happening at inopportune times. Some are off of linemen issues or just luck," Coach Lombardo said. "The guy's blocking and the ball bounces into him. When things like this happen they become real big deals in the game."

So they have to find a way that is best.

"We have to keep plugging away," Lombardo said. "The goal is to be the best version of yourselves in week 11 no matter what your record is, and that's the key. We want to be the best after four games in Region 1."

So this week the main focus is to step the run on defense and establish the run on offense.

"We have to effectively run with the football more," Coach said. "A lot goes into that. It's not just the running backs; it's not just the offensive line; it's not just the quarterback. There is a slew that goes in."

Offensively, the attack has gone on the north side. Thomas Csanyi has thrown TD passes and a number of aerials to a variety of receivers to keep the defenses guessing.

"The passing has done well," Coach Lombardo said.

"We will continue to do that to exploit that if we can. If we balance a little more it could be harder to stop us."

Getting to the red zone and getting in from the red zone has been problematic at times.

"The numbers are similar in that from years past," Lombardo said. "We didn't score much, and we couldn't get the field goal. Scoring touchdowns is lower, but we are there and not converting. With running, other things can be set up. It's not the number, but getting one effectively and efficiently. If we do that, it sets up other things."

In the Glenville game, the Tarblooders dominated in time of possession (28:21-19:39). This means the defense is on the field too much and the offense not enough, particularly gaining yardage with runs.

"We have less time on the field with our offense a lot this year, particularly against Glenville," the coach said.
