GAME PREVIEW: Eagles varsity football to play an expanding Football North Clarkson Secondary School program, which is also bringing down a freshman and a JV team from Canada, Eagles on upswing after win against Wildcats

By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – At 3 p.m. Saturday inside First Federal Lakewood Stadium, St. Edward takes a two-game winning streak into the game against Football North via Clarkson Secondary School.

The Eagles (6-1) have been playing North since 2019, except during the COVID year, 2020. The Eagles have won all the contests with FNCSS, and now are playing the Canadian team for the fourth time in five years.

The program has grown tremendously in such a short time. FNCSS has earned a lot of interest with more student-athletes to a point that they now have JV and freshman teams. The Eagles and Chargers will have three games over the weekend. A freshman and JV doubleheader will be played Friday afternoon/evening inside Br. James Everett C.S.C. Stadium.

FNCSS is still in the process of providing a roster in order to talk about names. The Chargers did send some film.

“They definitely have some huge offensive linemen,” St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said. “I know on the offense their left tackle, Everett Small, is going to Eastern Michigan.”

Also the left guard, Jackson Bellamy, a junior, has offers from among others, North Carolina Charlotte. The center, Noah Stanley, is a Maine commit.

“They have three offensive linemen that are Division one-ish, at least D-I AA,” Lombardo said. “I don’t know anything about the defenders yet.”

That’s something that could be a task going into the game, digging for information.

“We have film, but we just don’t know the personnel. We know how they align and know who is good just from film, Lombardo said. One thing that is known, the offensive line drives their team, much the way the large line is for the offense of St. Edward.

“Trust me, these linemen stand out; they’re huge,” Lombardo said. “My gut is saying they are going somewhere.” Last week they had a bye day, but the week before the Chargers defeated Cathedral Prep, 27-13. They’ll be playing St. Ignatius on the 20th.

“They play freshman and JV now, so over these last five years they have increased the program,” Coach Lombardo said. “Coach (Larry) Jusdanis does a wonderful job building the program. They are well coached. They play a good system on offense. They are multiple on defense.”

Football North plays only the American game, despite being from Canada.

“People think they are Canadian football team playing 12 men. “That’s not it at all. These guys play American football and they are groomed to play American football and to play in college. I have a lot of respect for what they are doing.”

The Eagles are coming off a big win against their No. 1 rivals, St. Ignatius, 42-7, and have caught some momentum going into this game.

To start last week’s game, St. Ignatius returned a kickoff 73 yards to the St. Ed’s 25-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, junior Bradley Eaton intercepted the pass, swinging the momentum to the Eagles for the rest of the game.

“It was a huge turn of momentum for sure,” Coach Lombardo said. “Then our first offensive play we throw the deep ball and we are inside their 20. In only three plays it all changed --- the field position flipped, the possession flipped, the whole nine yards. It set the tone for the game.”

Eaton, one of the best all-around athletes in the school, is a two-time state placer in wrestling, led the soccer team in scoring as a freshman, and as a sophomore last year led the football defense in a couple categories.

“That was my favorite part of it the runback and interception,” Eaton explains. “Their sideline was going crazy, the fans are going crazy, it was the first kick return of the game. They returned it 75 yards and they must have been thinking, ‘Oh. We are going to beat the powerhouse. We’ve got this.’ Then I was the guy who was whoa, whoa, whoa --- you are not going to beat us and it isn’t going to be easy.’ Then they went dead silent and all our fans all went crazy. That was the coolest part of it – that I was able to swing the momentum to our side.” It happening against St. Ignatius made it sweeter.

“I would say that it’s not that it isn’t the same in all games, but this game is more personal,” Eaton said. “We are out there and the name on our chests, the school we are representing means so much to so many people. It makes we want to make a play so much more. I was more passionate on that first play. I was so excited that I was able to help the team to help the community to swing the momentum into our fans. Now they could start cheering.”

After that pick, St. Edward had the momentum the rest of the game.

“We played one of our better games of the year,” Coach Lombardo said. “We were clicking on all cylinders offensively.”

Despite letting Ignatius score seven points, the defense did a commendable job.

“Except for that drive when Ignatius popped off a couple good runs, we held them in check,” the coach said. “When we had all that working for us, we could control the game.” He added that the kick-off coverage needs some improving.

“That’s something we can work on,” Lombardo said. “They are still St. Ignatius. They still have good players. We played and did some really good things. Like they say, we always chase perfection to attain excellence. If we can stop the runs and improve our kickoff coverage then.”
