GAME PREVIEW : St. Ed's defense has to stop a quarterback who has already thrown for 2,000 yards and the offense needs to get by a stout defensive unit that has given up only 14 points in the last three games combined

By Norm Weber

LAKESWOOD – Real high school football begins in November. Every game is important and from a St. Edward perspective every week the team starts 0-0.

Entering the Moeller game, St. Edward is on a two-game winning streak with only the Crusaders and Archbishop Hoban left to play before the "real" season begins.

According to Joe Eitel in his Sunday report, the Eagles (5-3) already have clinched a playoff spot. Now they are playing for a home game or two in the early rounds.

"In the end, the playoffs start with everyone 0-0," St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said. "If a team is playing its schedule and is improving, it really doesn't matter. It just gets you on a seed line. You have to win or go home. Right now we know we are in the playoffs. Hopefully we are in the top four, and if we're not we play an opponent and play to win so we can get another opponent. I always said that whether we 9-1, 10-0 or anywhere in between, we have to clean the slate and start the record over again."

The Eagles will play at 3pm Saturday inside West Chesterland High School Stadium against the Crusaders.

St. Edward's defense will have its hands full with quarterback Matt Ponatoski, who through week eight has already thrown for 2,167 yards.

"He really makes them go." Coach Lombardo said. He's a great baseball player too. A short stop, he had a scholarship offer in eighth grade to the University of Missouri.

You could tell by his release. He has quick hits. He had a quick release in the ROP game. He throws it accurately and throws a catchable ball."

Ponatoski played quarterback against the Eagles last season. The Eagles won that game, 28-21.

He's not the only offensive weapon the Crusaders (7-1) have.

"They do enough in the run to set up their play-action passes," the coach said.

The key receivers for the QB, are Matthew Fogler and Jovan Love. They are the top two receivers in the Greater Catholic Conference big-school division, a league the Crusaders have won with a 3-0 record.

Fogler and Love are the top two receivers in the GCL. Fogler has 564 yards receiving, and Love has 485. Tyler Josleyn has rushed for 354 yards, fifth in the league.

Defensively, the Crusaders are led by Christian Harris (5.5 sacks), Jonah Hayes (3 sacks), and Will Adkins (3 sacks)

"They have a stout defensive line," Coach Lombardo said. "Hayes is a Northwestern recruit. They have good linebackers and the secondary is deep. They put up quite a challenge."

The challenges will be to stifle the receivers and crack through that defensive line with a variety of backs they have been using the past three weeks, offensively.

"They have a good slot and they pose a problem," Lombardo said. "We have to cover. If we play too far out of the box, they can run the ball. If we put too many in the box, they play their passing game."

The defense has the challenge of preventing the explosive plays and switching.

"No doubt, that's the secret," Coach said.

"We have to cover and be in position against them. They have good receivers."
