GAME PREVIEW :

An explosive offense, a huge offensive line, and a speedy secondary could present problems for St. Edward in round two

By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – In a regional quarterfinal of the playoffs, St. Edward is to play Whitmer at 7pm Friday inside Whimer Memorial Stadium in Toledo, in the big-school Region 1 of the tourney.

Whitmer has a strong offense, namely in the passing game. They've mercy ruled four teams this season, including John Marshall last week.

Although it might look impressive rolling up all those points, the four teams they have defeated have a combined seven wins among them.

Still, the Panthers (9-2) have a strong offense. They scored more than 40 points their first two wins and then ended the season with two games over 40 points.

The Eagles (6-5) scored more than 40 points in their first playoff game against Findlay (48-0) and now has some oomph in the offense, heading into this game that could be quite a clash of offenses.

Whitmer's two losses this season are to three-time state champion Central Catholic, and to Anthony Wayne, an 11-0 team right now.

All the northwest teams in the St. Edward bracket right now have played one another. The winner of this game gets the Perrysburg/Berea-Midpark victor.

During the season, Whitmer defeated Perrysburg and Findlay, while the Yellow Jackets also topped Findlay. All three teams are in the Northern Lakes League.

Findlay is the only common opponent between the Eagles and Panthers.

The last time St. Edward and Whitmer met was in 2010 in a state semifinal, won by the Eagles inside Paul Brown Tiger Stadium, which made the Eagles 14-0 at the time.

The Eagles went on to win the state title against Wayne the next week. This was in the Kevin Burke/Tom Lally/Deontae` Gibson/Tyler Orlosky era.

Whitmer football was established in 1924, so this is the Panthers' 100th anniversary.

Because of its size, Whitmer has a larger pool of potential football players in the school, with roughly 2000 students, presumably half those being males.

Throughout the years, Whitmer has established itself as the winningest program in northwest Ohio.

The last three coaches had winning percentages of .750 or better, including the current one, Ken Winters, who is 50-17. He took over the helm in 2016.

Two years after the Eagles eliminated them from the playoffs, the Panthers made the finals two years later, ending with a 14-1 record, the best in school history.

This year the offensive line of Whitmer has the left tackle (Carter Lowe) committing to Ohio State will help in making it harder for the St. Ed's blitzing crew to get to the quarterback.

"It's a super explosive offense and it starts with their quarterback (Brady Ford), who has returned from last season," St. Edward Head Coach Tom Lombardo said.

"He's an Eastern Illinois commit."

They have a couple running backs who can run behind the two big tackles. They also have speed at wide receiver.

"Their defense is led by their linebacker, No.1, (Napoleon) Jemison," the coach said. "They have a couple good defensive linemen. The secondary is like the receivers, very skilled."

The coaches watched them on film.

"They like to take their shots down the field," Coach Lombardo said. "They use their speed to try to hit the home run ball. They are balanced. They run the ball and then take shots down the field."

The defense also gives different looks and blitzes, which will be a challenge to the Eagle offensive line.

"They protect the quarterback well, too," Lombardo added.

It was a help to already have played a team from the northwest in Findlay so the Eagles have an idea what kind of football the northwest brings.

"We saw them on film and we have a sense from playing Findlay and what kind of players they had," Coach Lombardo said. "We were able to affirm some of the things we saw but not others. Whitmer defeated Findlay almost the way we did. Even in that game, Whitmer did a good job with making some explosive plays. It was very similar to our game."
