GAME PREVIEW : Entering the regional quarterfinal game Friday, St. Edward awaits a diverse offense featuring a number of backs and a defense that does not give up much in Perrysburg

By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – For the third week in a row during the playoff run St. Edward will play a team from northwest Ohio in the northeast region of the big-school tournament when it has Perrysburg in the semifinals.

The Eagles (7-5) had already defeated Findlay and Whitmer. All three have been welcomed to the northeast, Division I Region 1.

Kickoff time is 7 p.m. Friday on Mercy Field inside Elyria's Ely Stadium.

Perrysburg has defeated Medina and Berea-Midpark.

"Perrysburg is 10-2," St. Ed's head coach Tom Lombardo said. "Anyone left in this round is a pretty darn good football team."

Several things make Perrysburg this strong.

"They are disciplined," coach Tom said. "They give you a lot of looks and formations. They have a couple quarterbacks who could run. They have big tough lead blockers. They play very sound on defense. They are always in position. They don't give up the big plays."

Quite a package!

"As always, at any point at this time it is going to be a challenge," Coach said.

The Yellow Jackets are the type of team that succeeds through its long drives and being stingy with giving up the football.

"They have a plethora of backs and the quarterback who can run," Lombardo said. They do a nice job with the quarterback run game. They churn out 3 or 4 a crack. They keep it rolling that way. It's a good, tough, physical football team."

Defensively, Perrysburg has done an impressive job, not giving up much in most games. They've allowed more than one touchdown only four times this season. Along with that they have four shutouts.

"They are really solid on defense," the coach said. "You can tell they are well schooled and coached on defense. They are stable and rarely put themselves out of position."

Some say the Eagles are playing their best ball now that the playoffs have begun. Defensively, they have given up only one touchdown in two playoff games, as tradition at St. Edward.

"I don't know if it is from the last (regular season) game, but the whole season got us prepared to play in the playoffs," coach Lombardo said. "Obviously we lost a couple we wanted to win. Nevertheless, those kinds of experiences set us up to play in these kinds of games that are winner take all. We win to advance. All our challenges and experiences prepare us for these games. We were in a lot of situations defending different kinds of offenses and situations. Also, defending really good players. We had to play against good defenses and for this moment."

Playing four defending state champs from last season this season might have been the best preparation possible.

"The schedule tells a whole bunch," Lombardo said.

The Eagles and Yellow Jackets have only two common opponents. The Eagles defeated Findlay, 48-0, in the playoffs and Whitmer, 24-7, in week 12. The Jackets topped Findlay, 37-14, in league play and lost to Whitmer in league play, 27-13. Although it might seem enticing, one who might want to make a syllogism out of all that information would find it a silly thing to do. Both Perrysburg and St. Edward are different teams than they were in the regular season.

One bit of trivia/useless knowledge/coincidence is that in week 11, both teams won by near identical scores, the Jackets bettering Medina, 47-0, and the Eagles Findlay, 48-0. In the first round.

The OHSAA reports that in week 11, 45 lower-seeded teams defeated the higher seeded teams on the latter's home fields. Eleven of those won again in week 12 in the same situation. The Eagles did half that on the back end of week 12, topping a No. 2 seed Whitmer in Toledo. Perrysburg is a No.3 seed and St. Ed's a No. 7.

Welcoming these three northwest teams is only natural. St. Edward is in the same region/district with Perrysburg is in the same district in wrestling evidenced by the Eagles continually winning the Perrysburg district with a good chase from the Yellow Jackets each year.

Also the St. Edward baseball team made it to the regional final last spring and then played none other than Perrysburg. So the neighbors from the northwest are certainly welcome.
