GAME PREVIEW : STATE SEMIFINAL

GAME PREVIEW: St. Edward football to face a Liberty team with talent in the offensive skills, and size with the inside defense

By Norm Weber

LAKEWOOD – St. Edward varsity football will preface Friday's state semifinal game against Liberty with the annual (most of the time) Thanksgiving practice at 9 Thursday morning in the backyard. All fans are welcome.

After surviving the cold and rain in the regional championship, 13-7, victory against Mentor, the Eagles now face Liberty at 7 Friday inside Mansfield's Arlin Stadium for the right to go to next week's state championship game.

Both teams are 4-0 in the playoffs.

"They have a quarterback (Andrew Leonard) and a running back (Jake Struck), who can play," St. Ed's head coach Tom Lombardo said. "They are excellent athletes. They have some good strong, hard football players. They are very impressive."

In 14 games, the defense has allowed 20 or more points three times this season.

"They have a good defense that limits big plays and bottles the inside," Coach Lombardo said. "They funnel the ball to the outside. They are good tacklers."

They do this with inordinate size on the front and in the linebacker corps.

With 31 seniors on the team, they are senior laden, which means more leadership and more experience.

"They have more seniors than we have this year," the coach said. "You can tell they are an experienced senior team."

The Eagles had some big plays on defense and special teams to be able to hold the Cardinals to zero points in the second half. Quarterback Thomas Csanyi had a nice pooch punt that landed on the Mentor 1-yard line and Colton Fee's interception ended a late drive by the Cardinals.

"The first battle was the elements," coach Lombardo said. "We were dealing with that and we played a turnover free-ish game. They had a bad snap on a punt; they fumbled the ball a few times and recovered most of them for first downs. We made a great play at the end when Colten Fee intercepted the pass. Thomas with that punt on the 1-yard line and 99 yards into the wind."

The Eagles had the ball again, but didn't make it, sailing a punt into the end zone for a touchback. Mentor had to go into the wind.

"Field position and ball security were the most important things," coach Lombardo said. "We won in both of those battles and that's what won us the game."

If the Eagles can play a clean and efficient game this week, than they have a good chance of going to Canton again.

"We gave up a couple big plays on defense, but we had some good plays on offense," coach Lombardo said. "We won more plays than they did in terms of the big run and that established position when it was tough to do really anything. We were worried about snaps, and handoffs and special teams' plays. There is no guarantee on an extra point. There is no guarantee on a field goal. A punt ... It's the closest game we've played."

This was another demonstration that strength of schedule trumps won-loss record, Mentor entering the contest 13-0 regular and post seasons combined. Although the Eagles played some of the best teams in Ohio, the South, and East Coast, some of it has to do with how rapidly the team is improving as a unit during this playoff stretch.

Ironically, Leonard, the quarterback, also plays ice hockey. The Eagles are playing the Patriots at the same time Friday here inside Winterhurst.
